BIOGRAPHY

MASTER SERGEANT CARISA M. JACKSON

Master Sergeant Carisa M. Jackson is the Superintendent and Medical Training Program Administrator, 59th Training Squadron, 59th Training Group, 59th Medical Wing, Joint Base San Antonio-Lackland, Texas. In this capacity she serves as the principal advisor to the squadron commander and manages the overall administration of 25 medical training programs including allied health career fields, nursing, and Graduate Medical Education. As the largest medical training platform in the Air Force, 59 TRS graduates 475 personnel annually, while reinforcing military standards and discipline on behalf of the Medical Wing Commander. Master Sergeant Jackson ensures the training programs are conducted IAW AFI 41-105, 59 TRG Medical Training Guide and individual course annexes.

Sergeant Jackson grew up as a military dependent and entered the Air Force in December 2001. She graduated as an Aerospace Medical Service Apprentice in August 2002. Her background also includes Aerospace Medical Course Supervisor and JBSA Independent Duty Medical Technician Coordinator.

EDUCATION
2006 Airman Leadership School, Lackland AFB, TX
2014 Non-Commissioned Officer Academy, JBSA-Lackland, TX
2015 A.A.S., Practical Nursing Technology, Community College of the Air Force
2016 Senior Enlisted Joint Professional Military Education

ASSIGNMENTS
1. December 2001 - January 2002 Basic Military Training, Lackland AFB, TX
2. February - August 2002 Aerospace Medical Service Apprentice Course, Sheppard AFB, TX
3. August 2002 – April 2005, Aerospace Medical Service Journeyman, Offutt AFB, NE
4. May 2005 – Present, JBSA-Lackland, TX

MAJOR AWARDS AND DECORATIONS
Meritorious Service Medal
Air Force Commendation Medal
Air Force Achievement Medal
Meritorious Unit Award
Air Force Outstanding Unit Award with one silver leaf cluster and one oak leave cluster
Nuclear Deterrence Operations Service Medal

EFFECTIVE DATES OF PROMOTION
Master Sergeant   1 November 2017

(Current as of November 2017)